HAMMER RUSSIANS FROM BALTIC TO BESSARABIA

Teutons Attacking Along a Front of 1000 Miles

VON BEULOW CROSSES WINDAU

Russians Resisting Stubbornly But Have Lost Some Positions.

London, July 19.—The Russian front, running from the Baltic in the north to Bessarabia in the south, a distance of nearly 1000 miles, is being subjected to violent attacks by the Germans and Austrians and in places has, according to the German official report, been pierced. In the Baltic provinces, Gen. von Beulow, using large forces of cavalry, has crossed the Windau river and is moving toward Riga. In the Przasnysz district, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, who is making his fourth attempt to reach Warsaw, has twice broken the Russian lines and compelled the defenders to retire toward the Narva river. In southern Poland after a period of inactivity Field Marshal von Mackensen is again on the move and claims to have captured some Russian advanced positions which stood between him and his objective, the Lublin-Cottbus railway.

Simultaneously with the attacks, which are the main ones, the Austro-German armies are on the offensive west of the Vistula river in central Poland and along the Dnieper river in Galicia. As was the case in the drive through western Galicia, the Russians are fighting stubbornly, and on one occasion are turning and delivering vicious blows at their opponents. But whether they will be able to hold their present lines is problematical.

The probability of the Russians having to evacuate Warsaw, which is threatened by Von Hindenburg in the north and Von Mackensen in the south, is being seriously discussed. The possibility of a further retreat, however, is being calmly considered in Russia, where the old theory that the farther the enemy is drawn into the country, the worse it is for him, buoys up their hopes of final victory.

For the present Berlin is the only capital celebrating, and again Field Marshal von Hindenburg, whose success in the Przasnysz region is the cause of it, is being lauded.

STAGGERS FROM ST JOHNSBURY POOL ROOM TO DIE

Death of Sumner Brown Probably Due to Drunken Quarrel

SHERIFF SEEKING HARLOW HATCH

Victim Shot Through the Lung and Lived But Three Minutes.

St. Johnsbury, July 18.—Sumner Brown, about 25 years old, shortly after 8:15 o'clock this evening staggered from the door of the Hatch pool room in this village crying "I am shot," and fell upon the sidewalk dying in three minutes. Twenty minutes later Sheriff W. H. Worthen and 20 deputies were scouring the town and surrounding territory for Harlow Hatch, Brown's employer, who was with the man. It is alleged, when Brown received the bullet, from a 32 calibre revolver, through the lung just above the heart.

Hatch, who was in the pool room when Brown was carried in by bystanders, disappeared in the confusion. An investigation was started immediately and it was learned that Hatch and Brown this afternoon hired C. E. Kirk to take them to Danville in an automobile. Kirk brought his passengers back to St. Johnsbury and left them at the pool room shortly after 8 o'clock tonight. It is said that both Hatch and Brown had been drinking but that neither was in a bad condition from liquor. Both men, according to Kirk's story, were apparently friendly toward each other. They paid their automobile bill and went into the pool room.

What happened in the pool room is not known. The revolver was found on the floor where it had been dropped or thrown. Dr. W. B. Fitch, who arrived shortly after the shooting, said that there were no powder stains or burns upon Brown's body or clothing which would bear out the theory that the man did not shoot himself as he could not have done so, it is claimed without burning his clothing at such short range.

Word was sent at once to Dr. B. H. Stone of Burlington, state pathologist, who will be here in the morning to hold an autopsy.

According to the statements of several who saw Brown stagger from the pool room and who saw his body taken back into the building, Hatch was present and acted confused. It is said that he urged that a doctor be sent for and when some one said they did not know where there was a telephone Hatch is said to have volunteered to show them where the central office was. It is claimed that Hatch went out to show someone where they could reach a telephone and that he disappeared.

Both Brown and Hatch were in their shirt sleeves and Hatch was so dressed when he disappeared in the crowd which had by that time assumed considerable proportions.

Many of the curious ones who quickly congregated about the pool room came from a nearby mission meeting attracted by the shot which was plainly heard by dozens of persons in the neighborhood.

But little is known of either Hatch or Brown. Brown, who came here from Jefferson, N. H., in May, is married and has a three-year-old daughter. His wife is employed as a housekeeper by Lambert Hastings of this place. This afternoon Mrs. Brown and daughter were spending the day in Concord.

Hatch came to St. Johnsbury a few months ago from Danville and shortly after purchased what was known as the Cobb pool room. Brown had been employed a short time by Hatch.

SLASH IN THROAT MAY NOT KILL LEO FRANK

Physicians Say Georgia Convict Has a Chance for His Life

WAS ATTACKED WHILE ASLEEP

Assailant a Fellow Prisoner Who Has Evidently Become Demented.

Milledgeville, Ga., July 19.—The condition of Leo Frank, who was stabbed in the throat by a fellow prisoner Saturday night, was worse today but the physicians still believe that he has a chance for recovery.

Atlanta, Ga., July 19.—Leo M. Frank lay last night in the Georgia state-prison hospital at Milledgeville, where attendants said he had a fighting chance for recovery. Physicians had succeeded in stopping the flow of blood from a jagged wound in his throat made with a butcher knife in the hands of William Green, a fellow convict, also serving a life term for murder. The blow was struck as Frank slept in a dormitory late Saturday night.

An investigation of the attack probably will be conducted by the Georgia prison commission, the body which refused to recommend that Frank's death sentence for the murder of Mary Phagan be commuted to life imprisonment.

Green said yesterday when taken from solitary confinement long enough to be questioned that he planned the attack alone and that no one knew what he intended to do. He gave as his only excuse that he "thought it should be done." He said, however, he regretted his act.

Frank was quartered at night in a dormitory with about 100 other prisoners and occupied a bunk about 40 feet from one of the two doors to the large room. Green's bunk was fourth from his. No prisoner is allowed to leave his place without permission from one of the two guards stationed at the dormitory at night. Shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday night Green called out for permission to get up and it was granted. He started down the line of bunks toward the one occupied by Frank. As he reached it he quickly grabbed Frank by the hair and delivered one blow with the knife he had concealed. A guard rushed to the bunk and prevented Green from striking again.

Among prisoners who rushed to Frank's aid were two physicians, one of whom was serving a life term for murder. They gave first aid and treated the wound until Dr. Guy Compton, the prison physician, was summoned from his home half a mile away. The three men took 25 stitches in Frank's neck. Dr. J. H. Rosenberg, the Frank family physician, arrived from Atlanta yesterday with nurses. He said that while the patient's condition was precarious he had a chance for life.

Mrs. Frank, who was in Milledgeville, was not told of the attack until after the physicians had finished their work. She became hysterical but later was calmed and taken to the prison hospital.

The cut extends from the front of the neck around the left side almost to the spine. Neither the windpipe nor the spinal cord is hurt, but the jugular vein is partly severed. The physician's greatest fear last night was that some of the stitches might slip, causing more loss of blood.

Frank has benefited a great deal by the outdoor life since being brought to the farm June 21. Though a small man, he always had a roused constitution and that, coupled with his exercise of the last three weeks, are in his favor, the doctors said. He took some nourishment yesterday.

Frank knew of the demonstrations against the action of Gov. Shafter, whose term recently expired in connection with his sentence and also of threats to take him from the prison farm by force. Those who reached his side first after he was wounded believed he had all this in mind when he said: "I guess they have got me now." He did not lose consciousness and after being taken to the hospital asked that his assailant be forgiven.

Green was sentenced from Columbus, Ga., for killing a man named Kitchen. Shortly after the crime a jury inquired into his sanity, but declared him sane. Saturday he was helping to kill hogs with other prisoners. He concealed in his clothing the knife he used in the butchering and later secreted it in his bunk.

Gov. Harris said at Atlanta last night that he had taken no official action in connection with the attack on Frank.

"Nothing has been done in the matter, as there has been no official notice of anything out of the ordinary at the prison," said the governor. "I have no doubt, though, that the authorities will take such action as the situation demands. I have tried today to get into touch with members of the prison commission, but so far have failed to reach any of them."

Last night it was announced that Frank's temperature was 99. His pulse was good and he was in no immediate danger.

FOUR CROWNINGS IN VERMONT IN TWO DAYS

Three Were Bathing Accidents and Victims Were Young Boys

NORTHFIELD GIRL FALLS IN PIT

Gladys Mayo, Adopted Daughter of Dr. W. B. Mayo Loses Her Life in Abandoned Slate Quarry.

Northfield, July 18.—Miss Gladys Mayo, 29 years old, the adopted daughter of Dr. W. B. Mayo, Northfield's representative in the General Assembly, was drowned late yesterday afternoon in a pool in an abandoned slate quarry near this village evidently falling into the water, which was about 20 feet deep, while hurrying homeward to escape a drenching shower which broke about 4 o'clock. The body was recovered this morning about 4 o'clock after an all-night search by a large party.

Miss Mayo, as had been her custom, started yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock from her home to take a walk. It is thought that when she found she was to be overtaken by the shower that she became careless in the selection of a path in her hurry to get home and stumbled into the quarry pit. In one of the young woman's hands was clasped some grass and weeds, which indicated that she attempted to save herself as she slipped into the pool.

Miss Mayo was in perfect health. She would have been 29 years old next month. She was adopted into the Mayo family 13 years ago. She was a favorite with the young set in this village and the announcement made this morning that she had been drowned had a stunning effect throughout the community.

Miss Mayo's adopted father is well known to the medical fraternity throughout the state and also to members of the present and past legislatures.

Manchester, July 18.—Edward Williams, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Williams of this village was drowned this afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock while bathing with several friends in the pond at mile and a half west of this village. It is supposed that the boy was taken with cramps or suffered from a weak heart and was unable to swim ashore.

Young Williams was a member of the sophomore class of the Burr and Burton seminary and very popular among his school mates. He went to the pond earlier in the afternoon with several boy friends, also his older brother, F. C. Williams, Jr., and James Malone. These boys saw the victim of the accident when he sank the first time but could not reach him.

They ran for help securing assistance from an uncle of the boy, Harry Rawlins and David Vetal. Rawlins dived into about 12 feet of water and brought the body to the surface. The youth was taken to the office of Dr. E. V. Trullis where Dr. Trullis and Dr. L. M. Kelley worked over him for more than an hour.

Williams is survived by his parents, three brothers and six sisters. Burlington, July 18.—Thomas Shilman, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Shilman of 188 South Champlain street, was drowned this afternoon at a point in the lake just south of the Lake Champlain club's wharf at the foot of College street where he, with other boys, was in bathing. This is the second life to be lost in the lake in three days.

The boys were playing on an old tow boat which is sunk near the pier south of College street and it is thought the boy must have fallen over the boat as he knew the water was over his head at the point where he was found and he was not able to swim.

Morrisville, July 18.—Kenneth Dodge, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dodge of this village, was drowned late this afternoon in Caspian lake in the town of Greensboro where he went this morning to spend the day at the J. R. Parker cottage.

This afternoon young Dodge went in bathing with Urban and Alban Parker of this village, sons of J. R. Parker and Middlebury college students. When the Parker boys reached shore they found that their companion had disappeared.

Search was quickly made and Dodge's body was found some distance from shore.

There is something about a program of magic that appeals to mankind irresistibly. People like to pit their powers of analysis and discernment against the skill of the magician. And they enjoy being baffled. Germain presents a bewildering melange of magic that will keep you alert every second. No magician in the country has won higher praise for his work than has he. He presents an entertainment that is new in nearly all of its features, though he performs a few of the tricks that have made other magicians famous. There is a "finish" to a Germain entertainment that makes it noteworthy.

He will appear on the second day of our Chautauqua.
